Camp Director
Richard Comly
Gwynedd Mercy College
Head Coach

Rich Comly takes over the Gwynedd-Mercy College Volleyball program with 10 years of experience at the high school, collegiate, and Junior Olympic levels. Most recently, he was the head coach at Perkiomen Valley High School where his teams improved on their win total and took a first year program into the first round of the district playoff's, while helping mentor three players named All-Conference and others who went on to play in college. Previously held positions as head coach at Chestnut Hill College where he was named the 2003 AWCC Coach of the Year as the Griffins tripled the amount of wins from the previous year. He also spent time at Division II Philadelphia University. Among coaching various local club teams and running clinics, Comly spearheads the Delaware Volleyball Academy where he is in charge of all aspects of the academy. The DVA program has produced Delaware State Player of the Year (2008), 3 First Team All-State Players (2008), and numerous all conference and all district players.
